RELIGIOUS.

An all-day sewing will be held to-day at the court house by the ladies of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church. It is hoped all the members will be present on this occasion.

Bishop C. E. Woodcock, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Kentucky, will conduct Lenten services this year in both Detroit and Philadelphia. For the past several years Bishop Woodcock has conducted services during Lent in New York.

Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, has agreed to serve on a committee of 100 distinguished laymen of the Methodist Church, South, to determine the missionary budget of the church for the next five years. The meeting of the committee will take place at Memphis, Tenn., March 19 to 21.

The Executive Commission of the Northern Presbyterian church, in session at Atlantic City, N. J., has sent out of the churches of the denomination a special "Declaration As To the War Emergency." The commission ordered that a copy of the declaration be sent to every pastor of the denomination, and asked that it be read in every pulpit in the church. The declaration is signed by the Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, moderator of the General Assembly, and by many of the leading men of the Presbyterian church.

REAL ESTATE DEALS AND LAND SALES.

Mr. Charles E. Montgomery, who recently purchased the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Skillman, near North Middletown, has taken possession and has moved to the place to reside.

Mr. Luther Ashcraft, of Paris, has sold his 350-acre farm in Nelson county, for which he paid $65 per acre, not long ago, to a Shelby county man, for $75 per acre, being $3,000 to the good on the deal.

Mr. Dee Dray, of this county, has purchased of C. H. Galbraith a small farm located on the Peacock pike, near Paris, containing six acres, for $3,600. Mr. Dray will be given possession in March.

Miss Inogene Redmon purchased the home of Mrs. John Tarr, at the corner of Cypress and Boone streets, in this city, last week, at a price not made public. The home will pass to the possession of the purchaser, as soon as the occupants, Rev. B. F. Orr and family, find another location.

Mr. Silas E. Bedford, of the Peoples-Deposit Bank & Trust Co., sold his 277-acre farm, located on the Ford's Mill pike, near Paris, last week, to Messrs. Henry S. Caywood and James Gregory, of this county, for a total of $66,480. The farm is in a high state of cultivation, and has a nice brick residence, and all convenient outbuildings, barns, etc.

Shortly after the purchase Messrs. Caywood and Gregory re-sold the farm to Mr. Clay Owens, of Clark county, for an advance over the original sale figures of $5,540. Both sales were negotiated by Mr. Ossian Edwards, of the Bourbon Realty Co. Mr. Bedford and family will move to Paris. Mr. Owens will move to the farm sometime in March.

Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold Saturday at the court house door for the Paris Realty Co., a part of the Roseberry Rogers farm, containing 129 acres, located on the Cane Ridge pike, near Paris, to Frank Collins, for 177 per acre.

Mr. Wm. H. Whaley rented his farm of 277 acres, located on the Jackstown pike, near Paris, to Mr. Horace Purdy, of near Millersburg, for a term of years. This is the farm which Mr. Whaley recently purchased from Mrs. Sidney Clay, of Lexington.

A large crowd attended the sale on Saturday of the old Wm. Pettit farm, of 343 acres, on the Richmond pike, near Lexington. The sale was conducted by Harris & Speakes, of Paris, Col. George D. Speakes acting as auctioneer. The farm was sold in three tracts, Mr. Chas. Winn, of Versailles, purchasing tract No. 1, containing the residence, at $237.50 per acre, tract No. 2 containing 119 acres selling to Dr. Samuel H. Halley, of the Fayette Tobacco Warehouse Co., for $225 per acre, and the third, containing 43 acres, going to Hall Bros., of Fayette county, for $200 per acre.

One of the biggest land sales that has taken place in this section for many years was consummated Saturday, when a syndicate composed of James C. Stone, of Lexington, and John L. Buckley and Clyde Buckley, of near Centerville, this county, sold the W. D. Watts place, near Lexington, containing something over one thousand acres, for a total of $210, $18.50, or an average of nearly $200 per acre. The sale was conducted by Auctioneer Boliver Bond. The land was divided into four tracts. It was reported in Lexington yesterday that the owners had realized a profit of $50,000 on the sale of the land, but this could not be confirmed.
